"At Arms Length"

A fading force, muffled yell, a question without any answer, a stone you throw without seeing the wrongs that were made by (you) Just let it slip, no need to compromise with the first thing that comes to mind
A broken spell, the end of good days, when I stopped pretending.

But you know better...

Just to floors down from my conscience lies a room with a crowd full of bones.
A subliminal voice, transistors turned out to stereo something.
There's too much noise, there's too much air raid, but i can't stand the silence though.
Put through a test, just do what feels right, and trade me that ending

Well do you keep searching for something that can't be found
Well I do to, so keep out of my way.

Believe in me until I stand corrected Believe in me until I stand down

When heavens lie, and darkness sweeps
A terror tale, for whom to keep..?

Can't stand silence
Can't stand hearing.

Can't stand silence
Can't stand anything

When heavens lie, and darkness sweeps
A terror tale for me to keep When lost is found
And false is true then I can get what belongs to me...

Well do you keep searching for something that can't be

Well I do to, but at least mine is within my own reach

It's at arms length
