It's not complicated
Or very hard to grasp
But every time I see you
I laugh
I won't get to sappy I had no epiphany
I just enjoy your company
You test my nerves it gets me stronger
So can you bother me a little bit longer?
Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend
Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend like you
I could dot the I's and you could cross the T's
Cause letters alone are lonely
I could be the blossom
And you could be the bee
And then I can call you honey
You test my nerves it gets me stronger
So can you bother me a little bit longer?

Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend
Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend like you
Some like to be alone, independent, and on their own
All alone I guess their free
But not me
Not me
Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend
Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend like you
Get to say goodbye good bye
Get to see the end the end
Because it's been so long since I made a friend like you
Because it's been so long since I made a friend like you

Yes it's been so long since I made a friend like you
Because it's been so long since I made a friend like you
