Scream abuse and praya, heya
It may sound morbit between madonna and slayer Such turbulent times are announced by the prayer A bizarre glam GOD, heya, heya Oh my world sticks in a hole, the bullshit they are talking even so alcohol and chemistry eyes opening that we can see a bizarre, glam, GOD brings us to bed this night

a bizarre, glam, GOD brings us to bed this night

Accuse me darling for the things I say, they gonna blame us for the music we play, like a witchhunt motherfucker hey hey hey declaration of war as la vay would say

Oh the more I have seen I want to turn in my head in my neck in my heart in my breast, I'm going to throw up the establishment

a bizarre, glam, GOD brings us to bed this night

a bizarre, glam, GOD brings us to bed this night

a bizarre, glam, GOD brings us to bed this night
