Drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs
Drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs

The words they spell are incomplete
The heat they give is only lie
Why should I care about myself?
Exactly that's what I need

Drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs, drugs

You are the sunshine of my life, forgive me father
(forgive me father)
You are the dreams in those nights, nothing rather

This all you kept inside, embrace me darling
My eyes are open wide, I don't need to breath,
I don't need

You are the sunshine of my life, forgive me father
(forgive me father)
You are the dreams in those nights, nothing rather

You are the sunshine of my life, forgive me father
(forgive me father)
You are the dreams in those nights, nothing rather
