Was such a lonely place
It didn't work very well
I can see now
Suddenly
The thing I really loved
Would wither before my Eyes by the hour

You can't always make it alone
You know that out there
We're all on our own
But if we stand together
Start caring for each other
We'll make it through
Let's start with me and you

But I
With just a broken wing
Didn't seem to get very far
Cause I'm still here
Even though
We did our very best
The flame it has faded
Worn down and defeated

You can't always make it alone
You know that out there
We're all on our own
But if we stand together
Start caring for each other
We'll make it through
Let's start with me and you

I will stumble
I will fall
I will bet and loose it all
If heaven fell to earth like a rock
I would stop stop stop

You can't always make it alone

You know that out there
We're all on our own
But if we stand together
Start caring for each other
We'll make it through
Let's start with me and you
