All my friends keep on telling me
That what you get in life
It won't come for free
But what if all I need
Is your company
My friends of mine

I have learned from the very best
Don't ever put your friendship to any test
You'll only break your back
At the very best
My friends of mine

Is it really so hard to see
That all the things you're doing's hurting me
So bad

Yet my friends keep on telling me that lessons learned in life
They won't come for free
But what if all I want
Is your company
And a little bit of friendly advise

Is it really so hard to see
That all the things you're doing's hurting me
So bad so bad
Everytime we set out to see
Remembering how things they used to be
So bad so bad so bad

I keep on thinking
This ship is sinking
But it doesn't matter anymore
It's time to make it show
Come on and let it go

Is it really so hard to see
That all the things you're doing's hurting me
So bad so bad
Everytime we set out to see

Remembering how things they used to be
So bad so bad
