You walked into
Cold and shallow waters
No one looked you
In the eye
And when I found you
Underneath the willow
You were colder than ice

But I know that you were all
That I had been waiting for
As you lay there with your face upon the ground
A broken heart made of gold
You're for me to have and hold
I will keep you with me 'till the day I die

Wondering what to
Do will all the heartache
You're not with me anymore

But I know you were all
That I had been waiting for
As you lay there with your face upon the ground
A broken heart made of gold
You're for me to have and hold
I will keep you with me 'till the day I die

But I know you were all
That I had been waiting for
As you lay there with your face upon the ground
A broken heart made of gold
You're for me to have and hold
I will keep you with me 'till the day I die

You walked into
Cold and shallow waters
Sleep now little one
I am here
