It's a winter day

Five years too late

I'm feelin' cold inside

Holding on to what I don't know

No more reasons, no more whys

Just my life

And my love I worked so hard to keep

Ooh, sad but true

Sad but true, it will be

A very different world without him

So I can't just up and let him go

What would my children say?

Mad, just a little sad, just a little bad, just a little had

Just a little time for me (ooh)

Not good you see

I need just a little more, just a little love, just a

Can't you see there's more to me?

Ooh, when you're creepin' out at night

Always try to cry myself to sleep

CHORUS:

Sad but true (sad but true)

It's not worth no more
I must tell him so
Goodbye is so hard to say
So sad but true
So sad but oh so true
A world of make believe
It's a place I've lived
Joyous all the ti-ime
Never knew my world could cave in
Fall in right before my eyes
I was blind
I would only see the signs I wanted to see
Ooh, sad but true
Sad but true and it's real
You must take the time to deal with it
Before you fall to deep in it
Can't find your way back home
Ooh, can't change his ways
Can't change my ways
If things stay the same
No one wins the game
I deserve better
He needs it better
I'm not so happy
He can't be happy

Aah, and the feeling in my soul

Our love has come to an end
