The Love Experiment -- Voice Farm

Lying in front of your living room window
Sun hitting us like X-rays
Waiting for something to happen
We're going to a different place.

Then you started smiling
And I felt our hearts expanding
Our eyes connected
In awe...

Then you pulled me closer
And I pulled you closer
Kissing your neck and your lips
I'm so glad we did this.

My heart was flooded
With your waves washing in
My heart was flooded
With your love.

My heart was flooded
Soaked right through to my skin
Swimming and lying
In your love...

Our legs wrapped around each other
I I can't tell
Where you leave off and I start
That's the best part.

My heart was flooded
With your waves washing in
My heart was flooded
With your love.

My heart was flooded
Soaked right through to my skin
Swimming and lying

In your love...

Lying in front of your living room window
Sun hitting us like X-rays
Waiting for something to happen
We're going to a different place
