what am I doing what will I see?
an opportunity that isn't for me I can't take my eyes off you take my eyes off you give your eyes my view for a second

I'm caught up in you appearing so free everything else I can take or leave I've tried to define... I'm making no sense can't stand by and wait for the consequence

I can be anything that you want
I can dream of the dreams that you want saturate every part of your life would you want it any other...
other way

what am I doing what will I say?
an opportunity that isn't for me
I can't take my eyes off you
take my eyes off you

saturate every part of your life
would you want it any other...
other way

I can't take my eyes off you
take my eyes off you
