I remember when you walked into my secret life
I remember holding hands for the very first time
I remember when you kissed me and I was so scared
But somehow I knew that you would always be there
And I remember everything

I don't know what life will bring tomorrow
But I want you there next to me
And I don't know where I will be tomorrow
But I'll remember you and me
You and me

I remember dancing in your arms all night
I was staring into your eyes in a circle of light
I remember your laugh and how we cried sometimes
I remember everything

I don't know what life will bring tomorrow
But I want you there next to me
And I don't know where I will be tomorrow
But I'll remember you and me
You and me

The leaves will change
The world is rearranged
Why do we all have to grow up so fast?
People come and go
And walk in and out of your life
But the ones that you really treasure will be with you for all time

And I know all the odds are stacked against us
But I know the rules don't apply to love
I do know that you came to rescue me from my secret life

I don't know what life will bring tomorrow
But I want you there next to me
And I don't know where I will be tomorrow
But I'll remember you and me
Oh I'll remember you and me

You and me
