i could hazard a guess
but ill never know
why you put these walls up i cant get through its as though you want to be lonely and blue

sometimes it feels like nobody knows
you wanna be alone now
hidden from view
feels as though the whole world is comin for you

maybe i know
maybe i dont
makes no difference you know im here if you want
here if you want
here if you want

people dont hunger
only for food
how easy that would be so basic and crude theres so much more you need just to help nourish you so if youve decided youve hungered too long and your sick and tired of being alone

i want you to know
im here if you want
here if you want
here if you want

maybe i know

here if you want
here if you want
here if you want
