I'll Never Forget When I Was Singing In The Street
You Laid A Sunflower In The Case At My Feet
Threw Me A Smile Then Rolled Right Away
People Cheered On The Day That I Fell In Love

My Head Was Heavy My Clothes They Were Torn
I'D Never Felt Like Anyone Princess Before
If You Knew How Much You Blew Me Away
I'd Want To Go And Relive That Day
It Was The Day That I Fell In Love

Oh Sunflower Man, Throw Me A Dollar, Reach Out Your Hand
Lay A Big Sunflower Down At My Feet
It Was A Buskers Dream The Way I Fell In Love

The Day You Gave That Big Sunflower To Me
We Lay Together And Spoke To The Dawn
We Spoke About Poetry And Sung Some Songs Till The Daylight Came

I'm Not Always Good At Saying How I Feel
This Song For Some People Is Not A Big Deal
But You Know Who Its From And You Know Who Its For
I Was A Poor Lonely Busker The Day I Fell In Love

Close Your Eyes Lay Your Head In My Lap
You Know I Really Love That
I Thank God For The Day I Was Singing In The Street
I Earnt Twelve Dollars, A Sunflower, And You To Keep
And I Fell In Love - And Im Still In Love
