

Waifs, The "Time To Part"

It may sound strange to your baby,
oh yes indeed
But when I leave you tomorrow,
I'll be pleased
I have been scratchin' at you for too long, too long I think it's time for us to part I do believe, that it is time

It may sound strange to your baby,
yes, yes indeed
But when I leave you tomorrow,
I'll be pleased
I have been scratchin' at you for too long I've torn your heart
There's blood on my hands, and its time for us to part

There was a time
(there was a time)
that you were my only one
there was a time
that you were my special friend, ohh but now I hurt you every minute, every hour (every hour)
the cream of our love has gone sour I'm the weed your the flower (the flower) it's time for us to part I think that it's time

Oh, did you see it comin' (no) did you think it would end like this (uh-uh) it should come as, no surprise (no surprise) you should've known it in my kiss cause then when the lights go down you stand me ok I am a low down fishers daughter by the light of day when it comes up I'll be no more in your way it's time for us to part, oh

I think that it's time, yeah I do believe don't you know I have a,

you've had enough of me baby
I think its time
