All at once I miss you
So long since I kissed you
How I long to look into your eyes
Yes I still dream about you
My world is lost without you
For you were my first love
And first love never ever dies

Whenever I feel lonely
I'm thinking of you only
One last kiss
And then we said goodbye

The love I left behind me
Comes back to remind me
That you were my first love
And first love never ever dies

And if you're thinking of me
And you find you still love me
There's no use to go on living lies
Let's hurry to each other
'Cos there could be no other

Yes you were my first love
And first love never ever dies
