I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,
I'll never give in till you're laying with me,

I don't mean to sound soking but you know me and I don't feel,
to spoil what we've got enjoying watching dots, touring out lines, fully boring good time, throuh the scent of flowers and the humility of love, the evening is now set up for a thorough dreamin of... the gentle guests and games with a sense of sex and said,
every sentiment lending metaphores for bed,

I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,
I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,

As soon later tonight, about the true signs who flew in my mind, I'll keep my arms with me for wrapping right round you, til' what we spark of a thought that could drown you, Does she do or does she don't love me true or thought we won't,
The only time I know of love is when silence is violent, Optimism fizzing in the clonk in dizzy image really rocking hot humidity, but this is sizzling, stumble over in your window, does she know is does she fuck knows, starting the evening riffing through feelings

I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,
I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,

I don't mean to sound soking but you know me and I don't feel,
to spoil what we've got enjoying watching dots,

touring out lines, fully boring good time,

I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,
I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,

I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,
I'll never give in till you're laying with me,

I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
you may as well tell me when that day will be,
I'll never give in till you're laying with me,
