Cos this world swallows souls and when the blues unfold it gets cold silence burns holes. you're going mad perhaps you always were, but when things was good you just didn't care
This is called irony - when you most need to get up you got no energy
Time and time shit'll happen, the dark shit's unwrapping but no-one's listening your mates are laughing, your brethren's fucking and then you start hating your stomach starts churning and you mind starts turning So smoke another draw, it won't matter no more but the next day still feels sore Rain taps on your window - always did tho but you didn't hear it when things were so-so you're on your own now, your little zone you were born alone and believe me you'll die alone Weed becomes a chore, you want the buzz back so you follow the others onto smack

Just trying to stay positive

Feels nice and still. Good thing about brown is it always will.
It's easy, no-one blames you. It's that world out there that's fucked you you're no less of a person and if God exists he still loves you.
Just remember that - the more you sink the further back from that brink.
Maybe if lifetime scars are your thing, tattoos might be more fitting, but who's picking?
Searching for yourself you find demons Try and be a freeman and grasp that talisman Cos you're the same as I am - we all need our fellow man we all need our Samaritan. Maybe I'm better looking than you tho maybe I've got more dough - but am I happier? no.

Get the love of a good girl and your world will be much richer than my world and your happiness will uncurl

Just trying to stay positive

Stop dreaming - people who say that are blaspheming They're doing nine to five and moaning and they don't want you succeeding when they've blown it. And you idols - who are they?
They too dreamt about their day. Positive steps will see your goals
Whether it's dollars or control, feel the gold I ain't helping you climb the ladder, I'm busy climbing mine
That's how it's been since the dawn of time If you reach a cul-de-sac, the world turns it's back this is you zone, it's like blackjack He might get the ace or the top one so organise your two's and three's into a run then you'll have fucked him son And for that you'll be the better one One last thing before you go though When you feel better tomorrow you'll be a hero but never forget today you could be back here - things can stray What if you see me in that window?
You won't help me I know. That's cool just keep walking where you go Carry on through the estate, stare at the geezers so they know you ain't lightweight - and go see your mates
And when they don't look happy - play 'em this tape

Just trying to stay positive

I hope you understand me I ain't no preaching fucker and I ain't no do-goody-goody either
This is about when shit goes pear-shaped and if you aren't or ever have been at rock bottom then good luck to you in the big wide world but remember that one day shit might just start crumbling
Your bird might fuck off or you might loose your job It's when that happens that what I'm talking about will feel much more important to you So if you ain't feeling it, just be thankful that things are cool in your world
Respect to BC. Positivity. Positivity
