it's gonna be alright
keep your head up to the sky cuz everythings gonna be alright
it's gonna be alright

too many problems in my life i find myself unable to maintain the negative is taking over my brain redesigning my mainframe developing so much hatred i feel like fuck all of y'all and for the slightest disrespect i will gladly touch all of y'aLL dedicated to doing bad and addicted to drama people think i'm missing manners and hometrianing but i'm just missing my mama it's like i don't fit in in this bullshit world surrounded by bullshit boys and bullshit bitches that'll murder there own people for a come up and that's why i be mean mugging every son of a bitch that walk or run up i'm paranoid my nigga i keep one in the chamber willing to trade my freedom for life and live amongst strangers my goal is to become a hundred and ten years old i found myself but i can't grow until i find my soul stuck on 25 but hopefully i'll survive i'll make it recieving heart pains from l-o-v-e but i'll take it

cuz everythings gonna be alright
it's gonna be alright

dear dorothy i know you're looking at your son from heaven so many people ? with drugs and weapons wish i could open up the pearly gates and see your face but i gotta sin for life mama and i might not get to see that place i just can't keep my cool muthafuckas be pressing the wrong buttons i pull out my jimmybone switch blade and start cutting nigga you ain't never known pain you don't want this in your jugular vain rusted blades make gangrene spread like mayonaise man i can't think of nothing that make me feel like that dro not even a woman cuz quick as she come she out the door can't put my trust in eve cuz she got tricks up her sleeve all i wanna do is live until i'm d-e-a-d of natural causes i don't need nobody knocking me off just let me ball bitch get out the waY you blockin me off stuck in the same spot but hopefully i'll survive i'll make it disrespected by the people i love but i'll take it

cuz everythings gonna be alright
it's gonna be alright
cuz everythings gonna be alright
it's gonna be alright
