1) This world is getting cold Got to find another place where love reigns supreme Its dark here in the 3rd dimension See the lights are flickering as hate destroys the world dont be afraid of the world today
lifes for living, not hiding far away
I hear you wanna shake it on a different plane where the vibes so good that you can go insane
Chorus -
I just want to go to the planet of love, planet of love 3x

2) Countdown to the destruction
Got to find another way to get what we need But its so hard to live in reason When everything is telling you to take what you want dont be afraid of the world today
life's for living, not hiding far away
I hear..... where the....
Chorus -
I know you wanna go to the planet of love
I know you wanna go to the planet of love

3) When this world is being cold Planet Zuba is a place where love reigns supreme Come on down to the 4th dimension
And we can groove another planetary melody dont be afraid... life's for living...
I hear... where the vibe....
Chorus - I know you wanna go to the planet of love, planet of love (3x)
