[Intro: Warcloud]

Warcloud, West-Coast Wu-Tang Clan

Dirty hammer drop, the dirty hammer drop

[Chorus 2X: Warcloud]

Dirty hammer drop, door knocker, funeral rose

Cross-cut saw, play dead, the bone breaker

Tooth-fairy sleeper hold, dark greeting stay gun-wise

Wolf bite, falling tree, old tequila sunrise

[Warcloud]

Welcome to the bunk house, jewelry in the sound

I'm laying on the roof with no skin from the top down

Watching old Mickey Mouse cartoons, I'm grim

There's a broad with a cocktail dress inside my pen

I'm William Make's body, the look of John Merrick

I play Alison who turned to back Eric

Dwelling in the pueblo, setting my dirty guns down

Look out for the cat in the box, we go to fun town

Poets better shush or get mushed, my gun blaow you

Dazzling diamonds, sparkling values

Will favorite value, punch you until you splatter

Jump up and punch a hole in the moon, watch it shatter

Be he live or be he dead, I'll grind his bones to make bread

[Chorus]
