Heading homeward, home I cannot find, oh love
Heading home yet I'm lost inside the night
I may be strong but without you I may fall, oh love
Betrayed and lost now I cannot hear you call

I will seek you longer
'Til your scent grows stronger

Still I wish you here as I've been
Lost for a long, long, long time
Lost in the rain
I'm growin' so tired

Still I wish you here as
I'm lost in the lone, lone, lone night
Erasin' me, erasin' my world

The night is open a door I will not close to you
I wait outside and long for a taste of home
So call out louder than this wind may blow, oh love
Betrayed and lost now I feel my hunger grow

I will seek you longer
'Til your scent grows stronger

Still I wish you here as I've been
Lost for a long, long, long time
Lost in the rain I'm growin' so tired

Still I wish you here as I'm
Lost in the lone, lone, lone night
Erasin' me, erasin' my world

I will seek you longer
For you scent I hunger

Come here, come on
Tonight's open for you and I
A night of tender petting
Of doors open wide

I need somebody to love

I need somebody to love
I need somebody to love
I need somebody to love

(I need somebody to love)
Amore in mano al vento
(I need somebody to love)
Lost in the rain
(I need somebody to love)
I'm growin' so tired
(I need somebody to love)

I need somebody to love
(I need somebody to love)
I need somebody to love
(I need somebody to love)

I need somebody to love
(I need somebody to love)
I need somebody to love
(I need somebody to love)

I need somebody to love
(I need somebody to love)
