Well I must have a door in the back of my head.

Where I dump out all the crap so I can just feel solid again.

No more sittin' around thinkin' about your hair, cause I must have a door in the back of my, back of my head.

Yeah. I got a beautiful new Asian girlfriend.

She comes over and hangs around for days in my bed.

You can't seriously believe I'm thinking about you man.

Cause I must have a door in the back of my, back of my head.

Well it's a brand new day and I'm walking around old town.

I feel cool as shit cause I got no thoughts keeping me down.

I'm thinking blah de blah blah blah to your trip.

Cause I must have a door in the back of my, back of my head.

Yeah. Back of my head, Yeah I must have a door there
