Can you feel me breathing on your skin,
whisper on your neck?
Can you feel it rolling from your chin
right down to your breast?

Can you feel my eyelashes begin
to open on your cheeks?
Can you feel me starin' cuz I'm starin'
My heart's about to leak.

But you're fast asleep,
you don't feel a thing.
I speak
and you don't hear a thing.

Intoxicated,
and fast asleep,
up on the rooftop,
we're above the streets.

Can you feel me breathing on your skin?
Whisper on your neck?
Can you feel it rolling from your chin
right down to your breast?

Can you feel my eyelashes begin
to open on your cheeks?
Can you feel me starin' cuz I'm starin'
My heart's about to leak.

But you're fast asleep
You don't feel a thing.
I speak
and you don't hear a thing.

Intoxicated,
and fast asleep,
up on the rooftop,
we're above the streets.

And I wish that you would come down here with me.

And I wish that you would come down here with me.

Put your clothes back on!

(Intoxicated) Put your clothes back on.

(Intoxicated) Put your clothes back on.

(Intoxicated) Put your clothes back on.

(Intoxicated) We're fast asleep.

And I wish that you would come down here with me.

And I wish that you would come down here with me.

And if I stole these kisses while whispering

don't say, don't say I didn't try.

And if I stole these kisses while whispering

don't say, don't say I didn't try.
