Why can't you leave me?
I still believe in all we had.
Why can't you heal me?
I still believe in what you said

It feels like dying
You're the one who kills the truth
I'm still trying
To find a way for me and you

Oh baby turn me on
With your ass and your tits you're so wicked
But I need some time to open my mind
Oh baby turn me on
With your ass and your tits you're so wicked
But I feel inside there's no way to hide.

Now I've been waiting
Hope that you feel the same way too.
Nothing is changing
I wish that all my dreams come true

Oh baby turn me on
With your ass and your tits you're so wicked
But I need some time to open my mind
Oh baby turn me on
With your ass and your tits you're so wicked
But I feel inside there's no way to hide.
