(Intro, Warren G) This song is dedicated to all my people That was caught up in hurricane Katrina Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama We ridin with y'all You know what I'm sayin? I feel your pain We gon' make it through this y'all Yeah Come on (Verse 1, Warren G) We here today, then gone tomorrow It's got me singin a Marvin Gaye song It made me wanna holla So I hop in my Impala Just to cruise, shake my blues It's hard to follow Hard to swallow what they sayin on the news Good Lord, it's a crazy world Watchin cops puttin cuffs on a five year old girl Racism, racism, got our babies in the system Mom and daddies in the prison That's intention, no division They the ones that's all you got They keep the families divided Keep it gangsta, keep it real That's all I hear, but I dont buy it When it's Revolution time, all these fool's will keep quiet Like shhhh, you can-you can hear a pin drop Can't go to one-ten cuz I might get popped People shootin on the freeway, when will it stop? But stay strong, cause the rain don't last And push the war up in 'em, will fix the price on gas (Hook, Side Effect) Don't let nobody, no-o-o one Get you doooowwwwnnnnn Cause if they do, if they do I'll be arouuuunnnndddd (Verse 2, Ice Cube) Why the black and the brown got to fight in the Pen. The black and the brown, they squabbin again Them God damned sheriffs, is laughin again It all stink, keep yo ass out the wind See the black and the brown, we can share the same land When I was a slave, where the hell did I ran? California man, it was full of mexi-cans Look mu-fasa, this is they casa Just, kick back and enjoy the sunshine Live ya life, stay away from one-time Get'cha money man, find the lunch line This ain't a joke, homie where's the punch line? The ghetto is a trap homie, take the cheese Soon as you do it, here come the police Invented and designed for us to fail Homie, don't you end up dead or in jail (Hook) Don't let nobody, no-o-o one Get you doooowwwwnnnnn Cause if they do, if they do I'll be arouuuunnnndddd (Verse 3, B-Real) What's really good? What's really hood? What's really goin on? Open your eyes and ears Wipin your eyes from tears From all the lies and fears People get blinded here Let me define it clear You gotta cross the bed Tell 'em some thoughts, oppressed Someone who flosses there You gettin lost in there Homie they cost they fares Niggas get bought and passed Tell us, get caught somewhere Never get tortured, kid I heard the shot from there Hit on the spot, from where Right on the street, prepared Levels of heat, you there Spit at my feet, I swear I will retreat, for years People deceive the peers Make you believe the cheers But underneath the smears I keep switchin gears Fall in my sleep, I wear For all the seekin shake You got a dime to spare?

You sound so sincere You're bottom line, bitch yea You sound so sincere (Hook) (Verse 4, Snoop Dogg) I try to do right I don't wanna do wrong I'm doin better things Man, I wanna live long Ain't too many fools out there harder than me I love football so much, man I started a league Oh what a pity, is made for the inner city Used to be dark, but now the park's real pretty Lil' boys outside, throwin footballs In the hood y'all Hey Snoop Dogg, how could y'all? Let 'em pass instead of blast The football field is a class And I'ma teach ya, teach ya my lesson Shotgun formation, no Smithsonian, no Wesson The haters keep stressin And everybody wanna ask me the question Hey Boss Dogg, how you feel now? You helpin out the kids, and they still hatin on ya, wow!
(Outro, Warren G) You know what I'm sayin There's a lot goin on in this world But we gotta keep on pushin and movin and groovin You know what I'm sayin? Yea, even though we got these hard times We still gotta keep it steady, ya know? Keep pushin So I want y'all to ride with me and cha-cha to this Dedicated to my people out there strugglin (Stay strong) Single parents, nine-to-five, steady hustlin (Stay strong) College students workin hard to be somethin (Stay strong) Anybody makin somethin out of nothin (Stay strong) Dedicated to my people on lock down (Stay strong) Anybody lost somebody, wish they still around (Stay strong) To all the soldiers fighting for us on foreign ground (Stay strong) To one and all, turn them frowns upside down (Hook)
