Everybody's seeking meaning
A place to call a home
Something to believe in before we're gone

Everybody's seeking comfort
Someone to be a friend
A hand to hold on to in times of pain

I need some love
I need to hear
The ache of no reason has taken its toll

I think it's time for giving up
I think it's time for giving in

Too tired to fight
All I am I give to you
You are home
In you I feel my meaning

I surrender, I surrender
Surrender, surrender
I surrender
