Know that I'll be there (there, there, there, there...)

Listen to my voice
You won't see me
You won't see me with ur eyes
Listen to my voice
I am feeling
You will feel me deep inside

And I'm feeling invisible
You won't see me anywhere
And I'm feeling invisible
When you need me I'll be there

Listen to my voice I go freely
You won't hold me in your hand
Listen to my voice I am emotion
And I always understand

And I'm feeling invisible
You won't see me anywhere
And I'm feeling invisible
When you need me I'll be there

I'm everywhere
But you cannot see
Open your heart
Meet me in your dreams
(Meet me in your dreams, dreams, dreams, dreams...)

And I'm feeling invisible
You won't see me anywhere
And I'm feeling invisible
When you need me I'll be there

And I'm feeling invisible
You won't see me anywhere
And I'm feeling invisible
When you need me I'll be there
