There is no time where we come from
There are no clouds that block the sun
There's here and now and what we feel
We have this moment and nothing else is real
Only me loving you loving me
With every beat of our hearts
Deep in my soul I believe
With every breath that we breathe
It's me loving you loving me
There is a place where our hearts meet
The night becomes us, still and deep
Without a word, without a sound
You leave me breathless to this world we've found
Where it's me loving you loving me
With every beat of our hearts
Deep in my soul I believe
With every breathe that we breathe
It's me loving you loving me
No beginning and no ending
Feel like you've always been
Burning like a flame inside of me
Deep in my soul I believe
With every breath that we breathe
It's me loving you loving me
Me loving you loving me
It's me loving you loving me
Loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Me loving you
You loving me
Only me loving you loving me
Loving me

Loving you
