Spread your wings, flyin over frozen mountains, crystal rivers, and geyser fountains, Driftin above China's mystic forests, float with the breeze across seas to shore,
Deserts, cactus, and tumbleweeds,
Irish meadows, and fields of green,
Glide through cities of brick and stone, broken arrows of ancient Rome,

Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Want you to fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me

Haunted woodlands, forbidden trails,
Dust devils, caves, and OK Corrals,
Through castle halls, under water falls, pyramids crumble when nature calls,
Sky were blue become black with stars, lighting bugs
kept within jars,
Sand moves quickly through the hour glass,
Wings spread, we can all fly at last,

Everybody come and fly away,
You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you will fly away,

Rock will melt, coal crystalize, clouds with skylines materialize,
Wings spread take flights over northern lights,
Wolves howl over blood red moonlit nights,
Kings and queens within our dreams, the sky rains diamonds a ruby ring,
Oceans, rivers, lakes, and ponds, lions, in the cold brr's along,

Come on and fly with me

Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Want you to fly with me
Come on and fly with me
Come on and fly with me

Muslims travel to the land of Mecca,

Atlantis, hidden deep under forever, Iceland golden tombs of pharaoh kings, Rainbows sprinkling diamond rings, voices cryin out echo carries,
Angels dance with the cryptic fairies,
Gates of afterlife open swiftly,
Stay if you wish, or come fly with me

Everybody come and fly away,
You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you will fly away,

Open your imagination, beyond anything conceivable, allow the unbelievable to take control of Your soul, levitate three feet above ground level, three feet above ground and rising, allow Yourself to raise and amaze, drift higher and higher into the moon's raise.

Everybody come and fly away,
You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you will fly away,

Everybody come and fly away,
You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you can fly away,

Everybody come and fly away, (FLY WITH ME)
You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you will fly away,

Everybody come and fly away,.
You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you will fly away

Spread your wings and come and fly away,

You must believe that you can fly away,
Spread your wings and come and fly away,
Just believe and you will fly away.
