GAME FOR GALS

My women live in a perfect world, dem no have fi fret Dem never worry nor sweat bout sex or de lovin dem a go get Aint no disrespect, Me a broke dem down, Make dem cum correct

You don't wan mess wit de bad man specially Give the work and drive the gal dem crazy with the natural Xtacy
Aint no fantasy, You get the lovin intensity

Woman you wanted nothing more than to spend the night,
And now you talking regrets and second thoughts?
Well best regards
Rudeboy say me no need that stress at all,
Guess it's best we part

No bother sing me no songs of betrayal, telling me what's right
Different song I made you sing last night 5 days more and now you there upon me front door
Blow out the candle lights

CHORUS

The temperature's rising, You getting excited Just wait, when me get in front of you Things you make the bad man do

Work your fantasy, and you good to go
Me give you all of the game that a gal fi know You get four men, four of them working four different purposes,
And the first it is..

The old man,
Don't want nothing but a hint of the sex appeal, pay up the mortgage and the phone and light bill, still don't touch you true him a rush fi the heart pill

Number two haffe the ugliest man you coulda find, not there fi mix up, there fi fix up house and land. From him a talk about the grind you introduce him to your ugliest galfriend... Think again

Number three affe your gay boyfriend, emotional and sensitive, for moral support...

Still one thing more, when you want the WORK you give a call to the Number 4. He'll give the grind galore.

CHORUS

I mon don't need no gun at all to blow these gals mind, Think these words are unkind?

All them get is this 9 inches and then some, Buckshot (Backshot?) Winchester Magnum.

Galfriend wish she had some, well then guess what's next, gal undress, me can't done.

Woman request the action, then them a gwaan like them want hold the bad man fi ransom. I really must be going.
