"Hail the Shame"

Visit "Hail the Shame" on MotoLyrics.com

Flags layed face down upon new dug graves
A wad of flowers to remember your name
A lost cause another brick in the wall
A whole blind crowd will hail the shame

Guns covered in sweat and blood
Peace sells but it's war thats a hit
Looks like another one died today
Thrown into the mass burial pit

This life's a waste now
This hope's met it's death
This bitter taste now
A look at what is left

Happy smiles on flag waving fucks
A convoy of cannon covered trucks
Invasion to a world of peace
Searched but couldn't find a single release

This life's a waste now
This hope's met it's death
This bitter taste now

This life's a waste now
This hope's met it's death
This bitter taste now
This life's a waste now
This hope's met it's death
