G.W. Bush: America, america, america, america, america, america, america....

America 2005 AD
Live in the ruins of a once great society
Led by a fool in a cowboy hat
One hand on the nuke button other on the scrap

Here in our new world order
Idiots are the new leaders
Here in a smoldering chaos
The true heros are the bleeders

Oil and a pact to please your daddy
Lying in the white house, covered in fleas
A can of black for a field of blood
Ruin any attempts at peace or love

Here in our new world order
Idiots are the new leaders
Here in a smoldering chaos
The true heros are the bleeders

SITTING HERE in my desolate land
CLAWING AT THE WALLS truths in hand
GUNFIRE heard it outside
NO FUCKING SENSE OF AMERICAN PRIDE (who wants to be one anyway?)

Here in our new world order
Idiots are the new leaders
Here in a smoldering chaos
The true heros are the bleeders
Here in our new world order
Idiots are the new leaders
Here in a smoldering chaos
The true heros are the bleeders
