The times I swore to put you down
I picked you right back up somehow
I didn't wanna take you in
You know I did, pleasure is sin

Killing myself
Killing me
Killer is you
Kill me

The lines I swore to never follow
I went right on down
Come up in a haze and hollow
Guilt is overshadowed somehow

Killing myself
Killing me
Killer is you
Kill me

It's always killing me inside...

Killing myself
Killing me
Killer is you
Kill me
Killing myself
Killing me
Killer is you
Kill me...
