Jason: alright, roll time...

The lust of the darkside is callin' me out
I wanna clean my life but I start to doubt
I try to block it but it gets in my head
Wins me over gets me closer to dead
Pull me round cause I'm easy I guess
I love the rush and I know its the best
I'm headin' out tonight I just gotta go Wind up fucked and I can care less you know

chorus:

Pull me out Draw me in
I want out yet I want in

It's past midnight and still I feel alive
If I was back at home I might as well have died
My loved ones they all tell me I'm fuckin myself up But sometimes I'm the one who just won't give it up

chorus (x2)

I stumble in, drunk and confuzed
In pain I feel beat and contused
High and runnin' yet crashing now Morning light sends me down

chorus (x2)
