Coming back to life
A hero's noble return
The rebirth of a legend the fire in his heart still burns He'll fight for what he's loved and he's learned from what he's lived He's been taken for a fool and he's granted what he's given

COME ON!

A legend has been reborn
He returns to save the day
Sending all of the dangers
spiraling away
We watch as he rides in and fears are chased away He's come back as the one and now he's here to stay

An absence for many years
The still life grew cold A growth of hollow fears chased away with days of old
The light in his eyes shows He's here for good We now live in safety and live free just like we should

COME ON!

A legend has been reborn
He returns to save the day
Sending all of the dangers
He's come back as the one

He's come back as the one
