Hello, I'm a little boy
I'll tell you 'bout my favourite toy
I like to play with guns and knives
And try 'em out on pregnant wives

But where I stand, there is no ground
Where I swim, the sea runs dry
Where I speak, there is no ear

And where I am, there's no escape

There's no escape from here
There's no escape from here
It's all so crystal clear
There's no escape from here

Hello, I'm a dead old man
I'll tell you all about my plan
I wanted people to hear my name, and live a life of fame and shame

But where I stood there was no ground
Where I swam, the sea ran dry
Where I spoke, there was no ear

And where I am now, there's no escape

Trapped inside this hole they call a body
I lie and wait 'till someone comes and takes me
To some place else, I don't care where I just don't wanna be here

Born into a rat race for the money
I crawl among the rest of all the suckers
And suck myself dry until I'm empty
It seems that I ain't got no choice

Turning circles 'round the same restrictions:
This planet, this universe, these eyes,

they hold me where I am
