You give me your silver
But you won't give me your gold
You give me your silver
But you won't give me your gold
You show me your heart
But you won't show me your soul

Ain't no love that won't come and go
To your heart like a revolving door
Now come here baby
I'll show you what to do
Give it to me, I'll give it back to you

Did you think that you could have a way
To save your heart for a rainy day
Now did you think you could hide away
Saving your heart for a rainy day

Ain't no love that needs an alibi
I know that you're living a lie
Now come here baby
I'll show you what to do
Give it to me, I'll give it back to you

Open your windows and open your doors
Don't leave me standin' in the rain no more
Now open your windows baby, open your doors
Don't leave me standin' in the rain no more

Ain't no love when all hope is gone
And you can't even carry on
Now come here baby
I'll show you what to do
Give it to me, I'll give it back to you
Give it to me, I'll give it back to you
