When the sun rises this morning
Where will you be
When it sets down tonight
Will you still be with me

Long distance lover
Why you always on my mind
Long distance lover
You got my poor heart in a bind

You know late at night
I'm in my room alone
I just got to call you baby
On the telephone

Long distance lover
Why you always on my mind
Long distance lover
You got my poor heart in a bind

The miles that separate
They just can't change my heart
I'm always blue baby
Because we're far apart

Long distance lover
Why you always on my mind
Long distance lover
You got my poor heart in a bind

How can you feel so close
When you're way across the sea
Sometimes you far away
When you're lying here with me

Long distance lover
Yeah you're always on my mind
Long distance lover
You got my poor heart in a bind

Oh yeah
