Do you remember the day
When I used to play
In the back yard
When life wasn't so hard?
Now times have changed
And we're not the same
The light inside ourselves got lost in the game
But you're all grown up, not goin anywhere
But it seems to me that you don't seem to care Still I got my chance to succeed It's my turn to play Watch me be a star now it's ok look at you now, struck by a star look no one's watchin, to find out who you are look at you now, struck by a star
look no one's watchin, to find out who you are You're still the boy I always knew before Everything's gone and still you want more More of this life, than you deserve Where are all the tears, from the heart's you've burned?
look at you now, struck by a star
look no one's watchin, to find out who you are
look at you now, struck by a star
look no one's watchin, to find out who you are
I don't remember that day
I never used to play What backyard?
Life was never hard Nothing's changed
We're the same
We're the same
We're the same
We're the same
look at you now, struck by a star
look no one's watchin, to find out who you are
look at you now, struck by a star
look no one's watchin, to find out who you are
