endless weeks of worries
time doesn't seem to hurry and you have left me in a haze
just another cliché
necklines drop on birthdays
and I know
she's your kind of girl
sweet but sugarfree
in your world
she's the perfect girl
sweet but sugarfree

the silence between words always hurts the worst
'cause I know
she's your kind of girl
sweet but sugarfree
in your world
she's the perfect girl

in your world
sweet but sugar free
