Jules and Jim
it's a re-occurring theme girls like me
are sometimes hard to please

tomorrow's always one
day too late
sometimes you're better off
in second place

truth or dare
I'm walking on thin air
one more score
then the general wins his war

day too late
sometimes you're better off
in second place

I turned around but didn't go now I'm too old to run the show

don't cut now
what you can untie
