She waits by my side,
Her smell reminds me of a time,
I tried to stay, i tried to run,
I keep falling again,
I'm in love,
And nothing completes me like you do.
Like you do...
All I wanted was everything,
All i got was all, I shoot you down,
I shut you out,
I can't believe this is hate,
I won't believe that,
And nothing destroy's me like you do...
Remember I promised you nothing.
I can't give you what I don't have.
You keep calling me,
You keep begging me,
You're creating a world of misery.
You keep calling me,
You keep begging me,
You're creating this world of misery,
I owe you nothing, I'll give you nothing.
I know that, You know that, I'm dead without you, I can't rest, Without you I feel dead...
I'm a believer
I'm a dreamer
I hate the day, the night im not alive, I hate the day, drowning fuck karma watching you slip away.
Without you by my side,
And without you in my life,
Im waiting for that day
When it's over and it's over again
