There's only on thing on my mind tonight
That's holding you real close and makin' everything
alright
Just give it up a little bit and you'll see
Just A little bit of love is all you need

I sit around just wastin' time
Tryin' to get you off my mind
That's one thing that has been really hard to do
I'll wine and dine you every night
Hoping it'll turn out right
So I can figure out how to get through to you I'm going crazy, from all the signals you send You played hard to get too long honey
Tonight it's gonna' end

There's only on thing on my mind tonight
That's holding you real close and makin' everything
alright
Just give it up a little bit and you'll see
Just A little bit of love is all you need

Well Daddy always said to me
Said "Slow down John, and then you'll see You take your time things will go your way"
With all the girls in the past
I've always like drivin' fast
But something about you makes me want to stay Momma' probably told you about the birds and the bees
Honey hear this bird singin'
I'm begging you, please

There's only on thing on my mind tonight
That's holding you real close and makin' everything
alright
Just give it up a little bit and you'll see
Just A little bit of love is all you need

Now the real way to keep a man
You love him the best you can

It's the only way you keep him close to home
Don't let him slip away or else he's gonna' stray
You'll cry yourself a river all alone
I won't stop this baby
'Till I see it through
I got a sneaky kind of feelin'
That you don't really want me to

There's only on thing on my mind tonight
That's holding you real close and makin' everything
alright
Just give it up a little bit and you'll see
Just A little bit of love is all you need

There's only on thing on my mind tonight
That's holding you real close and makin' everything
alright
Just give it up a little bit and you'll see
Just A little bit of love is all you need

Just A little bit of love is all you need
Just A little bit of love is all you need
Just A little bit of love is all you need
