FLY ON THE WALL - Paul Weller

Where angels meet - Their words are whispers As sea touches shore - the clouds move swiftly - and to me so small compared to it all like a fly on the wall

As pieces sweep - their meaning is still no clearer
And under my feet - theres nothing to stop my own free fall - Down and down I go
And compared to it all
I'm a fly on the wall

Our children sleep - resting our hopes and wishes
The night in between - I'm catching my scope, just fishing -
And in spite of it all -
I look at me so small
And compared to it all
I'm a fly on the wall
