HUNG UP - Paul Weller

Hidden in the back seat of my head
Someplace I can't remember where
I found it just by coincidence
And now I'm all hung up again

Just like a soldier from the past
Who won't be told it's over yet
Refusing to lay down his gun
He'll keep on fighting 'til his war is won
He's gotta hurt someone
He'll keep on fighting 'til his war is won

Waiting for the moment - keep on looking for a sign
Extraordinary - trying to cease the war inside

Hidden in the backseat of my head
Someplace I can't remember where
I found it just by coincidence
And now I'm all hung up again

And now I'm all hung up again
