toxic landfill
don't care just kill
losing our minds
free thoughts bled dry
ethnic cleansing
blood is spilling
this world's sickening
words do nothing

screaming for nothing
you're screaming for change
screaming for you
to not look the other way
screaming for nothing
screaming for you
to not look the other way

matthew shepard
there's no justice
nothing changes
this world's heartless
clinic bombings
people starving
human failure
feed us cancer

screaming for nothing
screaming for you
screaming for nothing
screaming for you

and I hope its not too late yeah can't live this fucking way can't call ourselves human
its all over now

we can't call ourselves human
its all over now
we can't call ourselves human
its all over now
