Time crashes by, I only search to destroy to define me, It's just a matter of time, until we Follow like blind sheep, its not a question of who's right, thats just what defines me, as me...
I am american, I am an alien, I am a man, and that's what defines me...so stay in that line...hide within the shadow, always two steps behind, i can not define me, when i walk this line, Im burning with cold feet, and I question my life, and what will destroy me...
I am american, i am an alien, I am a man, and that's what defines me...Keep walking that line...So stay in that line, keep walking that line, so stay in that line, inside that line.
I am american, I am an alien, I am a man, and that's what defines me...Made, american made...
