Do you remember when we used to try to always see inside your eyes? we found out long ago its much too late Now the only way to pacify shade my fears and hide behind all my hopeless failures and my fate not that you knew me all so long (not that I knew you all so long) 2nd time) always remember you were never wrong past the present, circumstances hand you it the gift you'll never get to keep and you throw it all away throw it all away I guess I'll just rely upon my inner child I drag along when all my worthless toys just keep on breaking and I'll take my turn and ride the ride come back thru the other side the audience still always seems to make it throw yourself away so if this is what I really want and this is what I need to see privacy, alone and locked away and if this is what I really want and this is what I need to see inside of me, I know just where I'll stay all alone
all alone
cause its over so over
so over
so done
so over
so overdone
