The distance in between is not enough come deeper down the water thinks Just right for swimming when the liquid's rough pulls harder now until you sink on and on feel it all wash away
as you left me empty
With blood under waves
It goes on and on
feel it all wash away
as you let me drown So peaceful underneath the setting sun So far beneath the ground below no matter what I learn I I never know How it comes around and comes back again
on and on
as you left me stranded
with blood under waves
it goes on and on
So its what you wanted what you needed theres nothing more to say you've still greeted what you greed in and when you've gone away there you are, where you are This is more than I bargained for (Learned on the way down) Too much, more than I bargained for (Learned on the way down)
Much more than I bargained for (Learned on the way down)
This more than I bargained for (Learned on the way down)

feel it all wash away
when you're crashing down
