Rain fell this mornin'
Make me feel so bad
On account of, my baby
Walked off with another man

Like takin' eyesight from the blind man
And money from the poor
That woman took my lovin'
And walked on out that door

And it sure got cold
After the rain fell
Not from the sky
From my eye

Somebody, can you tell me
Just what make a man feel this way?
Like river without its water
Like night with, without a day

And it sure enough got cold
After the rain fell
Not from the sky
But from my eye

If you're home early in the mornin'
You hear that rain to fall
With thunderbolts and lightning
The wind begins to call

Your worry's superficial
'Cause you slept on through the night
But stormy weather keeps you wonderin'
If everything's all right

And it sure enough got cold
After the rain fell
Not from the sky
But from my eye

Not from the sky
From my eye
